

Fifth Grade Summer Reading

Saint Mary Catholic School utilizes summer reading to help prevent the “Summer Slide,” foster a love of reading, and introduce genres/ books that students may not normally gravitate toward. Catholic books are included for family enjoyment and spiritual growth.

Students are asked to:

- Read a minimum of three books over the summer.
- At least one book must be chosen from the provided list.
- Submit a list of books read over the summer the first week of school.
